Lucy's BRAZILIAN KITCHEN

Lucy and Scott Wyssling Co-Owners of Lucy's Brazilian Kitchen

If you've walked down University Avenue, you've seen the large mural on the wall closest to the window. It features Christ the Redeemer perched on the hills of Rio, and it makes a warm welcome to guests as they enter the restaurant.

Lucy's Brazilian Kitchen located at 155 N. University Avenue in Provo, opened for business November 11th, 2016.

Lucy has had a desire to start her own restaurant for several years and the time was right, now that their youngest child turned 12 years old.

A native of Rio De Janero, Brazil, Lucy was from a town called Botofogo and Scott was born and raised in northern New Jersey (Rockaway, Morris County). Lucy was working as a Nanny when she met Scott at church volleyball for singles.

Lucy's is the only restaurant in Utah that makes sugar cane juice which is a delicious juice created from pressing sugar cane stalks. A very popular drink in Brazil. They also are the only to-order Brazilian restaurant in Provo and surrounding area. They boast having the most authentic Brazilian cuisine in the area as well as a group of mostly Brazilian employees who are extremely happy and pleasant to work with.

Lucy's cooks authentic Brazilian cuisine including the most popular dish (Picanha Steak) which most say, is the best steak in the valley. Other popular items include Brazilian appetizers (Pao De Queijo, Coxinha, and Pastels). They also make Brazilian bowls with acai pulp and their ever so famous juices including Brazilian Limeade, Sugar Cane, Maracuja, and Caju juice. Other entrees include grilled chicken and a variety of authentic specialty salads.

"When starting a new business, you really need to operate the business from the consumers' point of view. Lucy and I operate our restaurant as if we were customers and trying to be mindful of their experience as if it was our experience."
